1.3.2 - Institution familiarizes students with the diversities in school system in Indian as well as international and comparative perspective. Describe in not more than 100-200 words how students are familiarized with the diversity in school system in India with respect to: Development of school system Functioning of various Boards of School Education Functional differences among them Assessment systems Norms and standards State-wise variations International and comparative perspective

The institution familiarizes students with the diversities in school system in India. At the educational level, diversity refers to all different students, no matter what their personal traits, national origin, social or economic backgrounds are. It is strongly connected to the notions of intercultural and multicultural education. NCTE provides curriculum and support and technical assistance to schools in India. There are benefits associated with diversity in education, but the outcomes for students depend on how much diversity is acknowledged in a classroom setting. The college incorporates lesson plans that account for all forms of diversity. Students work better in a diverse environment and improve their performance enabling them to concentrate and push themselves further when there are people of other backgrounds working alongside them. Our administration readies graduates for promoting and teaching diversity as a means of accepting it. Our institute develops learning skills to build communities promoting diversity and employing human resource functions such as recruitment and orientation. Our institute considers education as a continuous learning process and not a formality. Practical implementation of knowledge rather than scoring good marks. Updating the education system according to The Institution sends its B.Ed students to RBSE board schools for their internship, so that they are acquainted with the different schools.

At Veena Memorial College of Education in Karauli, we ensure that our teaching-learning process is closely aligned with our stated Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) and Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) to foster effective education. Firstly, our faculty members meticulously design course curricula to reflect the specific PLOs and CLOs outlined for each program. They incorporate relevant teaching methodologies, assignments, and assessments that directly target these outcomes.

Moreover, we regularly review and update our teaching strategies and materials to keep pace with evolving educational standards and industry requirements. Similarly, if a student requires additional support in understanding complex concepts, we might incorporate more hands-on activities or provide supplementary resources to aid comprehension.

By closely aligning assessment tasks with students' identified learning needs, we ensure that they have opportunities to demonstrate their understanding and progress in areas where they may have initially struggled. This approach not only helps students build confidence but also guides our teaching strategies to better address their individual requirements. Ultimately, our goal is to foster a supportive learning environment where every student can thrive and reach their full potential.

Best Practice I

Women's empowerment in computer education in rural communities

Girls of different private schools and government . schools register themselves. Best practice IIYoga and Meditation

Our institute uses yoga and meditation to operate a health awareness program. Various yoga specialists are invited to instruct trainees in the actual use of various asanas and sitting poses along with pranayam breathing techniques. Every employee took part in this program of yoga practice. Ancient people used to grow hale and hearty by doing yoga and meditation. However, becoming healthy all the time without using medication is becoming more and more popular—not just in India, but around the world. With the approval of the U.N.O., June 21 is officially recognized globally as Yoga Day.

The college provides an opportunity to inculcate values. Series of academic achievements at the university level by securing ranks in the university examinations. There is also a high demand for college graduates in the education industry for placement. The college is distinct in its hands-on approach to training and applying theory to practice. The faculty focuses on authentic teaching practices, internships, and creating a truly reflective teacher. The oneness of knowledge is very effectively practiced. The college makes an effort to provide a holistic experience to its students in the form of guest lectures, conferences, and workshops. These are our hallmarks, and we make an extra effort to find those that add value. During an internship, student-teachers experiment with different strategies of teaching, putting into practice all that they learn in theory papers. The feedback provided to them builds on the theories and principles already taught to them by helping with better assimilation. As a result, by the end of the course, they will have developed the ability to reflect on different aspects. We also believe that language should not be a hurdle in the making of an effective teacher.
